

Round 2 — “Everyone’s a Suspect”

10:00 PM – 11:00 PM

Scene: Everyone’s inside. The party is over. The host opens, then turns the players loose to talk to each other. Move, pair off, trade alibis and secrets in conversation. Yes-and rule: if someone asks you something not on your card, play along; make it up consistent with your character.

- Your alibi: “I was in my suite from about 9:15. Zane was with me. We were... relaxing.” Hesitate on “relaxing.”
- Share in conversation:
 - If pressed on when you last saw Paloma, be vague. “This morning? Maybe last night?” You’re lying about something — but maybe not about murder.
 - If Fiona shows you the beach photos, get defensive: “Where are those photos? Delete them.”
 - You own the only override card. Don’t volunteer that. If asked directly, deflect: “It’s in my safe.”
- Seek out: Zane (lock in your story), Fiona (find out what she photographed), Sasha (find out what Paloma left behind).
- Stay near Zane physically. Eye contact with him every time someone asks the wrong question.

When Sunny stands up (federal stakes — ~minute 20)

When Sunny drops the corporate persona, opens his padfolio, and produces the federal badge + indictment list — announcing he’s IRS-Interpol and Paloma was his informant set to testify Monday:

- Drop your champagne glass. (Shatters or doesn’t — actor’s choice.) Big public reaction. The room registers it.
- After the drop, freeze. Don’t speak. Stay close to Zane. Your hostess composure has just cracked.
- When Sasha steps forward and hands Sunny the sealed envelope — watch them. Don’t intervene.
