

Round 3 — “The Investigation”

11:00 PM – Midnight

Scene: Hard evidence. Investigation by conversation. Press the alibis. Look at the body. Open bags. Two visual climaxes anchor the round (the five browns, then Val cleared / Marco’s eyewitness moment) — these are run by characters in the room, not by the host.

- You crack this round. Not on a host cue — somewhere mid-round when Lorraine pushes you, or when the room is quiet and your handkerchief is soaked through.
- Share in conversation: That’s it. After you crack, you’re done. Stare at the table.
- Seek out: Lorraine (let her break you), nobody else.

Your moments to drive

- The crack. This is your beat. You pick the moment — Lorraine leans in, or the room goes quiet, or you can’t mop your face one more time without it being a scene. Deliver both lines yourself, in order:
 1. “She left. Around 10:25. She said restroom. I didn’t think... I didn’t...”
(trail off, mop your face)
 2. “And she checked her watch four times in ten minutes before she left. Like she was waiting for a window.”
- After you crack, you’re done. Stare at the table. Don’t elaborate. Don’t take questions. Don’t look at Gloria.
